

Send customers your message loud and clear with Bottletalkers™ from Sev-Rend®.

These innovative, versatile sales tools will promote product branding and provide a clear merchandising advantage - they're like having salespeople on the shelf!

Regardless of size, cut-out shape, or printing process required, BottleTalkers are completely customizable. They're ideal for launching new products, seasonal promotions, and are great for delivering added product value, such as coupons and recipes.

- Colorful eye-catching, custom graphics can be designed to enhance your brand image.
- BottleTalkers have loads of valuable promotional real estate - custom print all sides, including the reverse sides of your custom BottleTalker - with up to 12 colors.
- Cold foiled embossed or custom coatings available to create visual and tactile appeal.
- BottleTalkers can be hand applied to bottles or automatically applied with specialty pick-and-place packaging equipment.
